

You have no idea how joyful it was for me to win the Outstanding Maternity Awards. It was my first international prize, and I still can't believe it, Outstanding takes their awards so seriously that I thought I would never achieve it.

It's not just about a seal, but a recognition of work that I do with a lot of affection and passion. And it was worth it, because I start to be seen with different eyes by customers.

Aline Dias