

Eliane Pellegrini: The Soul Behind the Images

From the demanding days of legal internships navigating divorces, estate settlements, and dense bureaucracy Eliane Pellegrini took a bold leap in a new direction. She traded the formalities of Law for the warmth of smiles and the art of preserving unforgettable moments.

This career transition was built on a rigorous academic foundation. Eliane holds a degree in Communications, with specializations in Digital Multimedia, Photography, and Video Editing.

She further sharpened her expertise through advanced training in Photojournalism and Data Journalism, earning her professional credentials as a journalist.

This background is a vital asset today, as her international features enrich our Digital Magazine.

Over the years, Eliane has photographed more than 700 weddings and countless families, earning international acclaim and numerous award-winning photographs. Her portfolio is a testament to her global reach:

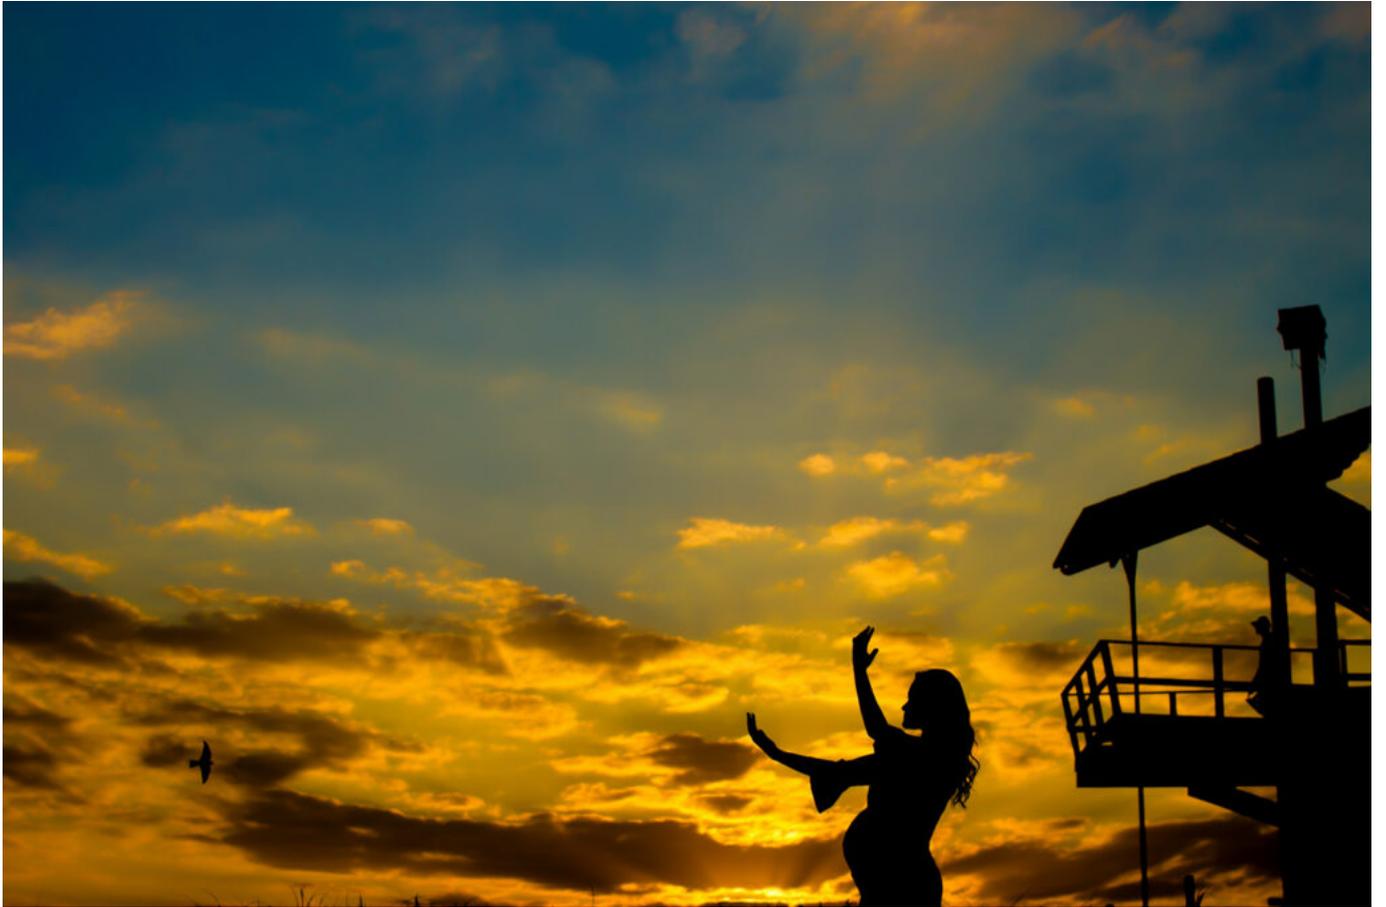

Canadian Presence: As a permanent resident of Canada, she has worked across British Columbia, Quebec, Ontario, and Alberta.

A World of Cultures: Reflecting on her time in Ottawa, Canada's capital, Eliane cherishes the privilege of photographing families from every corner of the globe including Tunisia, Egypt, India, Armenia, Ecuador, Germany, Lebanon, the Philippines, Japan, China, Afghanistan, Iran, England, South Korea, Austria, Bangladesh, Ukraine, Croatia, and various African nations.

International Reach: Her work has taken her to over 14 countries, including Brazil, the UAE, the USA, Argentina, Uruguay, Chile, the Dominican Republic, Norway, Sweden, Finland, Estonia, France, Italy, and Spain.

“Photography is part of my life almost every single day; if I’m not shooting, I’m editing or working with my students online.”

Eliane Pellegrini: The Soul Behind the Images

As a specialist in wedding and family photography, Eliane's influence extends beyond the camera. She is a dedicated educator and speaker, having led workshops in Madrid for international students, as well as in São Paulo and Rio de Janeiro.

Her work has been featured in exhibitions in Rio de Janeiro and continues to be showcased in Canada alongside other international artists.

For Eliane, photography is an art in constant evolution. She remains passionate about sharing her knowledge, believing that true success lies in the balance between continuous learning, technical mastery, and healthy self-criticism.

Through her artistry and mentorship, Eliane Pellegrini continues to inspire a dynamic exchange of knowledge, proving that the best images are those captured with skill, soul, and balance.
